Gas Rates Upped

New Rates In Effect Dec. 1

City commissioners voted unanimously Monday night in favor of a 10 per cent increase in gas rates for Canyon.

Present were John Taylor, mayor; commissioners, Clarence E. Thompson, Delbert Lowes and George Ritter. John A. Williams did not attend the meeting.

Local gas company manager H. R. King appeared before the group and said his company would appreciate a decision at the meeting. Petition for the rate increase was presented to commissioners several weeks ago.

King said the 10 per cent increase is going into effect throughout this division and only one or two towns have not approved it yet.

Next matter before commissioners was proposed collection of delinquent taxes. A. W. Lair, city attorney, was authorized to collect these taxes.

Dr. A. G. Randall and Bill Davis of Amarillo presented ordinances to commissioners which govern preparation of foods for sale within the city limits of Canyon. Dr. Randall is head of the Bi-City-County Health unit in Amarillo. Davis is sanitary engineer for Amarillo. Commissioners told the men to give the ordinances to Lair for review and they will be considered at the next meeting.

Ray Cole brought a state contract price list for tires to the meeting and explained purchasing procedures to commissioners. Prices are set at a state bid accepted by the board of control and these prices are available for political subdivisions. Cole said Randall County, and the school district take advantage of the prices. Commissioners voted to accept this bid effective November 29.

Bruce Blackaby, T. S. Stevenson Jr. and Ed Williams appeared to discuss an ordinance prohibiting the use of city property for commercial purposes. Blackaby told commissioners he would need more time to provide space for his used cars at an earlier meeting.

Taylor asked him how much more time he needed and Blackaby said it might possibly take a year.

"How about until January 1, 1961?" Ritter asked.

"That would be too short a notice," Blackaby said.

Stevenson said Blackaby's present location "won't be worth a $5 bill if he can't display cars like he does now." He offered 10 spaces behind his building for county employees to park all day, to relieve parking conditions around the square.

Williams said when he came here in 1921 car dealers wanted corner lots so they could display cars around the building.

Lowes told him there was also a watering trough in town then.

Blackaby finally asked commissioners for a year's extension on the enforcement date but they set it at January 18, 1961. This is a 60 day prolongation from the original plans.

Last business before the commissioners was method of disposal of the 1926 Southern firetruck. They voted to sell the truck at public auction under supervision of the volunteer fire department.

SANTA CLAUS paid a very brief visit to Canyon Wednesday and came by the Canyon News office. While here he visited with one boy, Bobby Rivers, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bob Rivers. Bobby told Santa he wanted a rifle and a few other toys. Santa left after inquiring about many other boys and girls in Canyon.

Drawing to determine lucky Canyon shoppers will be held on the north side of the courthouse square Saturday at 3:30 p.m.

This week many Canyon merchants have been giving tickets for each $1 spent in their establishments. These tickets will decide winners of $75, $50, two $25, $15 and $10 in Chamber of Commerce script which can be spent in participating businesses.

A drawing will be held each Saturday until Christmas Black said.

Formal Opening of E-way Starts Here Today at 9

Ceremonies marking the formal opening of the Canyon-Amarillo expressway get under way this morning (Thursday) at 9 a.m. with the first part being in front of the Fine Arts Building at West Texas State College.

Guest speaker at the Canyon program is Marshall Formby, past chairman of the state highway commission. He was serving as chairman when the expressway was approved.

Earlier scheduled to appear at the Canyon ceremony was Price Daniel, governor of Texas, but other plans interfered and he will not be here or in Amarillo. Taking his place at the ribbon cutting ceremony at the Amarillo end of the roadway is Hal Woodward of Coleman, member of the highway commission.

S. Howard Evans, community development specialist with the United States Chamber of Commerce, Washington, D. C., will be guest speaker at the luncheon today.

Amarillo Air Force Base band and the Laughlin Air Force Base drill team will be in Amarillo for the ribbon-cutting ceremony to be held south of the entrance to the traffic dispersal system. The Buff band will take part in programs at both.

Climax to the expressway opening will be the luncheon held at Amarillo Country Club for dignitaries.

Special guests from Canyon and Randall County will be: Wayland Angel, county judge; county commissioners Glenn Dowlen, Clwrence Beckman, Bailie McCormick and C. Y. Johnson.

Stock Show Date Set, Building Plans Roll

Junior stockmen in Randall County highlight their year of activity January 13 and 14 at the Randall County Junior Livestock Association show to be held at the city barn.

Officers and board members met Friday, November 25, to elect new officials and also to set the date for the 1961 show. In addition to the coming show the association adopted as its main project the erection of a show barn.

Bill Wilson was appointed director of a committee to raise funds for the new building. He said that directors have tentatively accepted a building plan submitted by Sims Structures, Inc., of Randall County.

Building will be similar to the new high school gymnasium. With masonry walls and a rounded roof, the new building will have a 60 foot front. The building will be heated and will have a small kitchen in addition to housing and show areas for stock.

Heading the association for the coming year is J. O. Parker Vice-president is Glenn Dowlen; Duane Howard is secretary.

Richmond Hales was named general superintendent of the 1961 show and Cristler Crain was appointed an executive board member.

New directors named at the meeting are Charles Smallwood, Bill Wilson, Alvin Friemel, Frank Begert, A. R. Friemel, T. A. Black and C. V. Conatser.

Association committees were named at a special meeting Tuesday night and these people will be notified by mail this week, Parker said.

Starting in 1947, the Randall County junior show had grown until a building is a mjor need, according to Wilson. He pointed out that former shows, and the upcoming one, have been held at the city barns requiring stock to be housed and shown outside.

In order to finance the new building Wilson said several projects are under way. Tickets go on sale this week for a half-beef pen fed by Parker-Whitlow farm near Happy. He said all officers will have tickets and anyone interested in buying one or making a donation can come by his office in the courthouse annex.

Persons making donations of $10 or more will receive tickets for each $10 donation and these will decide the winner of a similar half-beef.

Oldham County Refuses To Agree on Annexation

Oldham County School Board has refused to agree to the annexation of part of the Wildorado School District by the Canyon district in Randall County.

Action taken Tuesday night in Vega by the board followed the August decision by the Randall County School Board which voted to annex a portion of the Wildorado district. The portion included nine sections of land which represents about 15 per cent of the Wildorado tax roll.

Judge Wayland Angel, ex-officio superintendent of the county school board, said they had petitioned earlier in the year to take the nine sections into the Canyon Independent School District.

Robert Fulton, president of the Wildorado board, had been advised in a recent letter from the State Department of Education that the annexation could not go through without approval of the Oldham County School Board. In the letter the annexation problem was described as a "county line case" since the Wildorado district lies in Oldham, Deaf Smith, Potter, and Randall counties.

Ed Jacobson of the Oldham County board said the ruling was made primarily because of the distance five grade school children (now attending Canyon schools) would have to travel, from the Wildorado District to the Canyon school.

Marion Bruce, president of the Randall board, said the point at issue was education for the children, and not tax dollars to be collected on the annexed property.

Fulton said that Wildorado has both an economic interest and an interest in the people involved in the problem.

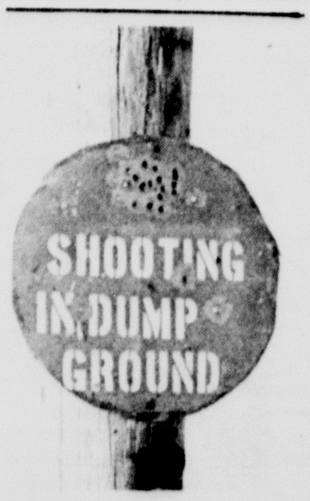

Discussion at the meeting---attended by about 30 parents of Wildorado students, and members of the Oldham, Wildorado, and Randall County boards---centered on the distance to be travelled by youngsters attending the Canyon schools. Fulton said the minimum bus ride for youngsters going to Canyon is 22 miles, compared to a maximum distance of 9 and one-half for children attending the Wildorado school.

Decision of the board came in a closed meeting following the opening session.

Father of two of the Wildorado youngsters who have been attending school in Canyon said that, while the school trip is farther, his children have been getting home 15 or 20 minutes earlier this year than they did last year when they attended the Wildorado school.

The difference he said, was in the waiting time at Wildorado where youngsters catch a bus from Vega for their trip home.

Bushland School District annexed approximately 7 1/2 sections of the Wildorado district in August also. No action was taken Tuesday night on the Bushland annexation.

Cotton Farmers to Vote On Market System

Randall County cotton growers will vote December 13 in their annual referendum to determine whether to continue a system of marketing quota for the upcoming crop, Doyle Thomas, office manager of the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee announced this week.

If approved in the referendum, the system of quotas would apply in the 1961 cotton crop, he said. This would be the eighth successive year in which quotas have been in effect for upland cotton.

Upland cotton quotas have been proclaimed by the Secretary of Agriculture on the basis of an official determination that the estimated total supply of cotton for 1960-61 will amount to approximately 21.7 million running bales or about 3 million bales above normal.

The law requires the proclamation of quotas by October 15 in any year when the total supply exceeds normal. Quotas do not take effect, however, unless approved by at least two-thirds of the growers voting in the referendum.

In announcing the upland cotton program for 1961, Thomas pointed out that only one allotment-price support program will be available to growers for their 1961 cotton crop. Legislation provided the so-called (A) and (B) programs only for 1959 and 1960. If marketing quotas are approved in the December 13 referendum, price support will be available to growers who comply with their farm allotments at a level within the range of 70 to 90 per cent of parity.

As in other years, the exact level of price support will be determined later. Growers who exceed their farm acreage allotments will be subject to penalties of 50 per cent of the June 15, 1961, parity price on the farm's excess production of the crop. In addition, none of the upland cotton produced on the farm will be eligible for price support.

If marketing quotas are disapproved for 1961 acreage allotments will remain in effect and price support will be available to cooperators at 50 per cent of parity, as provided by law. However, there would be no penalty for exceeding the allotment. Farmers will receive their 1961 allotment before time to vote on December 13.

Three polling places will be opened from 8 a.m. to 6 p.m. in the county. They are: ASC Office in Canyon, Randall Grain and Supply Office at Ralph Switch, and the KC Hall in Umbarger. Forrest Gruner will be in charge of the Canyon Box, F. E. Lesly will handle the Ralph Switch box, and M. W. Hicks will supervise the Umbarger box.

They will name other judges to assist them.

According to Thomas there are approximately 280 eligible voters in the county. This includes the wives of eligible cotton farmers whom he also urges to vote.

MacDonald Speaks To Rotary Club

Col. Daniel V. MacDonald, commander of the Strategic Air Command at Amarillo Air Force Base, was guest speaker at Rotary Club luncheon Tuesday.

Col. MacDonald pointed out that the SAC is the "long range defense" part of the Air Force. The 18 B-52's at Amarillo can be put into the air in 15 minutes.

SAC bases throughout the world constitute the United States' first line of defense. They have many advantages over ballistic missles that Russia boasts today, MacDonald said. The B-52 long range bombers carry missles that can be used over highly defended areas, the colonel pointed out.

Col. MacDonald said that the SAC command in Amarillo represents an investment of $150 million.

CITY DUMP is also under supervision of the Public Works Department of the city. Garbage is dumped, burned and buried with a bulldozer.

Public Works Employees Are City 'Trouble Shooters'

"They are the city's trouble shooters," says city manager Bill York of the Public Works Department employees.

Archie Davis, city employee for approximately 25 years, heads the group of men responsible for streets, sanitation, the park and swimming pool.

Superintendent Davis has 10 men working for him during most of the year and when summer arrives the number increases.

Perhaps the biggest job facing the group is maintenance of approximately 40 miles of paved and unpaved streets within the city limits. Another 40 miles of alley-way shows the enormity of this one facet.

The 1960-61 city budge has provided $68,391 for this project. Four men, two flat bed trucks and a front end loader make up the crew and equipment for the work.

Another task facing the Public Works Department is collection of city garbage. Over 1,600 garbage stops keep two packing trucks and six men busy. Included in this job is upkeep of the city dump. There, a bulldozer keeps the mounds of garbage covered and digs new ditches. Budget provides $40,126 for sanitation operations this year.

As for the park, it requires constant mowing, trimming and watering during part of the year. Even during the winter months it must be kept clean and trimmed.

Sidlining from their regular work, the Public Works men repair all city vehicles when time allows. They do city carpenter work; presently they are building a storage building at the dump grounds.

Street sweeping is another job most people do not know about since it is done mainly at night.

Maintenance of street signs doesn't sound like much of a job but York assures that it takes a fair portion of time each month. "Cars occasionally knock down the signs," he says, "but a major part of our sign repair results from antics by pranksters." Signs often disappear, are moved to new locations, or are just turned around on the pole.

York sums up the job of the Public Works Department by saying, "If it can't be done, we call them."

Postmaster Offers Mail Tips

In the busy mailing season which always accompanies Christmas Marion, Higdon, postmaster, makes three recommendations to Canyon mailers:

1. Use any light color that does not interfere with legible address and postmark. Brilliant colors should not be used.

2. Use paper strong enough to withstand normal handling in the mails. Highly glazed paper or that with an over all design is not satisfactory for showing the address and necessary postal endorsements legibly.

3. Use standard sizes. Envelopes smaller than 2 and three-quarters by 4 inches or larger than 9 by 12 inches are not recommended.

Higdon said the rugged individualism of Americans is clearly evident in the sizes, shapes and colors of the envelopes they deposit in the mails.

"Often extremely small or odd-shaped envelopes and brightly colored ones or those of paper with an over-all design contribute to mishandling or loss in the mails," he said.

Remodeled Kitchen Brings Convenience to Frank Home

Convenience is the keynote in the newly remodeled kitchen in the Joe Frank home.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank decided to remodel the kitchen because it did not have enough room nor were its facilities arranged right. As long as they were remodeling, they might as well install the latest appliances to have a convenient, modern kitchen, the Franks decided.

They themselves designed the plans that turned their old-fashioned kitchen into a cinderella one.

Chief defect of the kitchen was the lack of counter space. Mrs. Frank had to stack dishes on a small table and wash part of them before she could shift the stack to the cabinet top.

Another defect the Franks wanted to overcome was the lack of space for a dining table. They wanted to eat family meals in the kitchen.

To overcome these two faults, the Franks began by tearing out a pantry. In its place they installed a breakfast bar, with a built-in range in the counter top.

"This made my work area more concentrated. The eating bar is next to the cooking surface," Mrs. Frank explains.

The range is also more convenient to the formal dining table in the adjoining room than was the one in the previous arrangement.

Also built into the eating bar was an electric mixer. The motor is located below the surface, with the bowl being attached in a small metal recession. A beater shaft runs up through the center of the bowl, which is shaped like an angel food cake pan, and holds the beaters.

Another convenience installed were three large lazy susans, one in each corner of the U-shaped cabinet.

"I like them because I can store anything--large or small articles--on them and have it at my fingertips when I need it," Mrs. Frank said.

A garbage disposal and a dishwasher were added to the kitchen's facilities. Mrs. Frank said the family had had a dishwasher when they lived on the farm, but had not had one since they moved to town.

"I like the remodeled kitchen ever much more. It's so convenient," Mrs. Frank says.

It must be convenient. She still has some cabinets that are empty.

County Agent's Column

JOHN BRAZZIL

Feeds which supply low cost protein and low cost energy is of real concern in feeding cattle. Grain is considered the cheapest energy source and protein supplements should be chosen on the basis of their protein content and cost. A mixture of different sources of vegetable protein has little to offer since cattle make their own amino acids.

In considering the purchase of a supplemental protein feed for beef cattle, the cost per pound of crude protein should be noted. To arrive at the cost per pound of crude protein divide the price per cwt by percent protein. When cattle are wintered on dry grass, bundles, and other nonlegume feeds protein is the supplement most needed. This protein plus salt and a mineral containing calcium and phosphorous supplies all known needs of cattle. Chemical compositions of Texas feeding stuffs reveal no other needs. The best buy is that supplement which will supply about 0.8 lbs of crude protein per cow per day at the lowest cost. Cattle on wheat pasture need no additional protein.

Grass fires are now a real hazard. All citizens, both from town and country, should be ever alert to this hazard. Some thoughtful preparations now before the fires break out might save someones pasture, home equipment, or even someones life.

•••

The Randall County Junior Livestock show will be held in Canyon January 13-14. Big plans are now in the making to have another top show. If some very ambitious plans and hard work can be coordinated, the show will be held in a big new exhibit building in 1962.

Machinery Efficiency Can Increase Profits

Machinery inefficiency can strike a devestating blow to farm profits. Cecil Parker, extension farm management specialist, says that every farm operator should know the cost of owning and operating machinery. If he does not, he is in a poor position to determine how to increase his machinery efficiency, Parker continues.

Fixed costs, such as depreciation, interest on investment, insurance, taxes and housing may represent the largest expense associated with owning machinery. If the farm is large enough, however, these costs may be small on a per acre basis.

Repair and maintenance may also involve a large cash outlay.

WT Cagers Kick Off Season in Home Tilt

West Texas State's basketball team kicks off a 23-game schedule Saturday night at home against Midwestern University, a team that gave the Buffs a lot of trouble last year.

Coach Metz LaFollette's crew edged the Wichita Falls club twice last year but by a total margin of only eight points. The scores were 85-84 and 76-67, and Coach Dennis Vinzant is reported to have an improved club this year.

Saturday's season opener will start at 8 p.m., following a 6 p.m. preliminary between West Texas State's talented freshman squad and the Amarillo All-Stars, an independent team.

The Buffaloes open the new season with two starters returning from the 1959-60 club that won 11 and lost 9 and tied for second place in the Border Conference. Clovis, N. M., Senior Keith Blair, a 6-foot guard, will be starting for the third straight season, and Jim Curtsinger, 6-4 junior guard from Hereford, is expected to repeat in a starting role he gained last season.

Curtsinger took the Buffs' No. 1 scorer and rebounder, 6-5 Milt Fitts. The All-Border Conference choice left a gap that is worrying Coach LaFollette abouth the Buffs' board strength this year. Fitts averaged 20.1 points and 13.5 rebounds per game.

Curtsinger pumped in 15.4 points per outling last year but none of the returnees came close to matching the departed Fitts in rebounding. Expected to start along with Curtsinger and Blair are 6-8 junior center Jim Conner, 6-6 sophomore center Bob Grace, and 5-10 sophomore guard Sonny Blankenship.

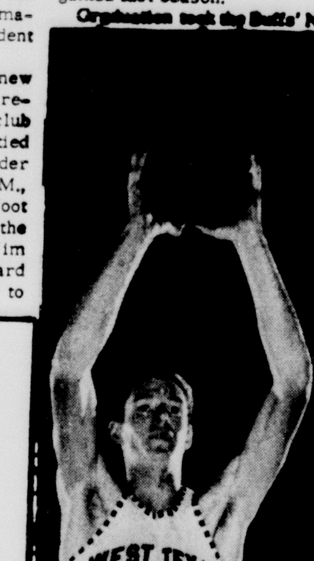

Conner, a product of Childress High School, had made enough progress to earn a starting role by mid-season last year but soon afterwards suffered a knee injury that ended the campaign for him. An operation and knee brace have him back in top shape again and the fate of the current Buff squad depends a lot on Conner's play.

Grace, a transfer from Texas A&M and a native of Plainview, adds size to the Buff team but his ability to produce under fire is still a question mark. The 6-6, 200-pound sophomore could solve some of the team's rebounding problems.

Completing the probable starting unit is another sophomore, 5-10 Blankenship. The high-jumping Gruver cager has bumped some older hands to gain a starting role, and Coach LaFollette is high on the youngster's ability to do everything well.

The other six members of the varsity squad are pressing hard for starting roles, especially sophomore guard Steve Slagle of Hereford and junior center Henry Hardaway of Claude. Also capable of moving up before the season's over are center Jerry Bell of Vernon, and guards Frank Castleberry of Borger, Don Teague of McAdoo and David Blume of Turkey.

Saturday's game is the only home appearance of West Texas State in December. Road trips to Abilene to meet McMurry and Abilene Christian and to Mississippi-Louisana will highlight the pre-holiday card.

JIM CONNER, junior center for the 60-61 Buff basketball team, stands 6 feet 8 inches. He will be a starter on this year's team.

WT Frosh Play At Post Friday

Pettys Have Boy

Petty is employed in Amarillo and attends West Texas State College.

Maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Art T. Furlow of Canyon, and Mrs. B. C. Taylor of Canyon is the maternal great grandmother.

Mrs. L. R. Bratton of Plainview is the paternal grandmother. Paternal great-grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. John Cornell of Hale Center.

Canyon eighth grade basketball teams split victories with River Road in games played there Tuesday.

Wichita Downs Buffaloes 31-14 In Season Final

The record, 3 wins-7 losses, gives coach Joe Kerbel a 2-win jump over last year's.

The Wichita U. game, played at Wichita, Kansas, Thanksgiving afternoon, was a heartbreaker for the Buffs. The Kansas team led throughout the first half racking up 18 points while the Buffs made only one first down.

Coming back in the second half the Buffs tallied 14 points to the Shockers' 13 but the first half lead broke their backs.

In the final minutes of the game an offside play almost led to first play but both coaches came on the field to prevent any disorder.

First score came in the first quarter when Dick Johnson recovered Ned Jolly's fumble on the Wichita 49. The Shockers went the distance in 10 plays with Willie Mallory running the ball over from the 5. Extra point try failed.

Late in the second quarter Wichita moved 44 yards in four plays to add up another 6 points, when Johnson carried the ball over from the 5. Extra point try failed.

With one second remaining in the first half the Shockers hit pay dirt again on a 19-yard pass. End Rich Malone received the toss from Johnson. Conversion try failed to bring the halftime score to 18-0.

Coming out in the second half the Wichita team again scored with a 50-yard run in the third quarter.

Dawson passed to Jimmy Janes for the 2-point conversion.

In the last quarter the Wichita team got their fifth and final touchdown when quarterback Alex Zyskowski made a 37-yard run. Conversion kick was successful bringing the Wichita tally to 31.

A Wichita fumble on their own 41 set the Buffs up for their final score of the game. The Buffs drove to the 5 in seven plays but got a penalty and loss which set them up on the 15. Dawson tossed a pass to John Hall who carried it across.

Conversion try failed and that gave the final score: 31-14.

Jimmy Janes ended a last minute Wichita scoring effort when he intercepted a pass in the end zone. But the Shockers intercepted a Buff pass and ran it to the West Texas 21 when time ran out.

Eagles Win Two, Drop One Game

Canyon Eagles have begun their basketball season with a 2 win-1 loss record.

Their only loss came in their first bout with Dumas there November 21. Following this loss they came back to win over Lockney 48-37 and Panhandle 48-46. These wins came on the court here in Canyon.

Coach Allen Simpson said the Eagles have improved each game. "We started off with only two boys who had any experience to speak of," Simpson said, "and we've had to learn the hard way."

The varsity squad is still undergoing changes. So far, Simpson has settled the following ten as a probable squad:

High point man so far is Jim Glenn with 43 points. He has averaged 14.3 points per game hitting 46 per cent of his field goals. Next is Ronny Harris with 25 points. He has average 8.3 points per game.

SOCIETY NOTES

Work of Mavis Hill, district clerk, must be interesting.

Her office does paper work for court proceedings, such as trials, suits, adoptions, and divorces.

Mavis said Monday that adoptions were by far the nicest type to handle. Everyone is happy, especially the parents who are getting a child for their own.

Divorces are among the more difficult. Then the district clerk must collect and pay alimony and child support, which involves a tremendous amount of bookwork. Calls from irritated husbands who feel they are having to pay too much and from irritated wives whose husbands missed a payment are time-consuming problems for Mavis and her secretary, Sue Cummings.

Incidentally Sue is leaving tomorrow, and her place will be taken by Sherry Hendricks, who has been working in the District Court's office for the past two weeks, getting acquainted with procedures.

Mavis said that when she began work, she would almost cry when 17 and 18 year old boys were sentenced to the penitentiary. Now it doesn't bother her as much, although she is still upset.

Through the paperwork involved in cases, the district clerk's staff becomes acquainted with circumstances in each, and develop sympathy for the individuals. At the same time they can't help feeling that some circumstances are ludicrous.

Christmas carols will be played by every radio and television station, by stores, and by church chimes. Mrs. Betty Pettitt, secretary at the First Methodist Church, says a roll of carols will be put on the Warwick Memorial Chimes around December 11 or 18.

It's too bad we don't have Christmas music all year round, but maybe carols wouldn't seem so special at Christmas time.

Seems that three Canyon Golden Glovers, Ross Bonds, Zeke Clements, and Elmer Clements, have joined the Hereford Golden Glove team and are taking part in bouts around the Panhandle.

MRS. BOB PARIS (Photo by Britain's Studio)

Miss Vanda Latham Becomes Bride of Bobby Paris Wednesday

In an impressive candlelight ceremony, Miss Vanda Latham became the bride of Bobby Paris at 7 p.m. November 23 in the First Methodist Church.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Latham of Canyon, while the bridegroom is the son of Mrs. J. E. Hill of Tahoka.

Rev. C. Newton Starnes, pastor, officiated at the double ring ceremony, read before an altar decorated with bronze chrysanthemums and pom pom mums. Seven-brancht candelabra holding white tapers flanked the altar, as did floor baskets filled with bronze chrysanthemums and pom pom mums.

Mrs. Glenn Dowlen, organist, played a prelude of nuptial selections and the traditional wedding processional and recessional. She also accompanied Mrs. Farrell Devenport, soloist, who sang "Whither Thou Goest" and "The Lord's Prayer."

Mrs. Don Paris served as matron-of-honor. She was attired in a street length gold taffeta dress and carried a nosegay style arrangement of gold and bronze china and pom pom mums, accented by salal foliage.

David Brandon acted as best man.

The bride was escorted to the altar and given in marriage by her father.

For her wedding, she chose a floor-length princess style gown of white satin. It was fashioned with a high collar, tiny buttons down the front, long sleeves that came to a point over the hands.

She carried a nosegay arrangement of white carnations backing a white cattaleya orchid.

The bride's mother chose a light blue dress with beige accessories, while the bridegroom's mother wore a dark blue dress with black accessories. Both wore corsages of gold feathered carnations.

A reception followed in the Latham home.

Audra Watson registered the guests.

Presiding at the bride's table were Mrs. Bill Richards, who served the cake, and Carolyn Glanton, who served punch. Centering the table was the three-tiered wedding cake, decorated with gold leaves.

For the wedding trip to sites in New Mexico, the bride wore blue suit with black accessories and a white orchid taken from the bridal bouquet.

A graduate of Canyon High School, the bride has attended West Texas State College where she majored in business education. She expects to graduate in May. The bridegroom a graduate of Tahoka High, also attended WT, where he is a junior biology major.

They are living at 2606 Sixth Avenue.

MRS. GEORGE ROBINSON

Devin, Robinson Exchange Vows

Joseph A. Hill Chapel on the West Texas State College campus was the scene of the wedding ceremony uniting Miss Geneva Devin and George Robinson, both of Stinnett.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Devin of Canyon and Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Robinson of Camergo, Oklahoma.

Gordon Downing, director of Church of Christ Bible Chair, read the double ring ceremony at 3 p.m. November 20.

The altar was decorated with two floor baskets of white mums and stock was backed by two candelabra with arrangements of greenery and stock tied with white satin ribbon.

Mrs. Don Duncan played the organ.

The bride's only attendant was Miss Elena Donald, who wore a blue brocaded satin and carried a bouquet of blue carnations. Best man was Ray Robinson, brother of the bridegroom.

Sharing the ushering duties were Wayne Smith of Stinnett and Glenn Devin, brother of the bride.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was attired in a white lace gown, fashioned with a fitted bodice and a full street-length skirt.

Both the bride's mother and the bridegroom's mother wore white carnations as corsages. Mrs. Devin chose a pink lace dress with pink acessories for her daughter's wedding, and Mrs. Robinson wore a dress of blue taffeta with black acessories.

A reception followed in the Church of Christ Bible Chair.

The serving table was laid with lace over blue taffeta and a three-tiered cake centered the table. Arrangements of mums and stock completed the setting.

A graduate of Canyon High, the bride received her bachelors and masters degree from WT. She has been teaching in Stinnett Grade School for the past eight years.

The bridegroom graduated from Camargo and served in the Korean War. He received his college training at Weatherford, Oklahoma, and is now teaching in Stinnett.

ELECTRIC BASEBOARD HEATING-

Gentle, constant warmth — like the warming rays of the sun — but never sudden gushes of hot air followed by cold blasts. You'd like electric baseboard heating for that kind of comfort alone.

But there are still more advantages: warm floors without drafts — separate temperature control for each room — no loss of floor or wall space.

Your Public Service manager enjoys talking — about electric heating. Ask him how you can put baseboard heating in add-on rooms as well as new or older homes.

KEEPING UP WITH THE ARTS

Mary Caballero

Saturday night, November 26, a new series of plays started on KNGC TV. The plays will be two hours in length. "The Closed Door" was the first in this series and had in the starring roles, Dane Clark and Kim Hunter. We surely hope you didn't miss this one.

From the excellence of the first performance, we can certainly look forward to the best in entertainment from this choice programming.

Wm. A. Moore, drame professor from WT, will be master of ceremonies.

KGNC TV has arranged to have these plays for six months. The actors and actresses will be top ranking in their field.

Our enthusiasm for this type of show can be expressed by writing a card of appreciation to Channel 4 KGNC TV.

The next performance will be "Tiger at the Gates." This will be December 17 from 8 til 10 o'clock in the evening. I will give more information on the coming plays at a later date.

Some time ago, I wrote a short comment on abstract art from Mr. Jacob Lipking printed in the New York Times. Mr. Lipkin was quoted as saying, "Abstract art is the fad of tasteless taste-makers who hate humanity and nature. It will pass in time."

Now since the time Mr. Lipkin made his statement, I have found a rather humourous reply to his remark:

"I read with whetted interest the recent editorial in which you quoted the New York Times which had quoted artist Jacob Lipkin, who in his turn had delivered himself of a vigorous opinion on abstract art. Secretly I hope it does not take its turn down the road of limbo until I have had the opportunity to try my hand, be it ever so amateurishly.

"My earliest recognition of art as something of unique majesty began with high school tours of the local art gallery. Pastoral scenes came nearest my heart because I was raised up in one; knew the smell of each flower, the warmth of the sun that cut sharp shadows and the sweet aroma of grass that waved dreamily in the wind, even on the canvas.

"Then one day I ran head-on into abstract art hanging right on the wall of the most proper art display in town. While I was looking at it, a teacher from the local university walked up and began looking also. I asked hime the distance one should stand from the picture for the best respective. He judged the best distance would be about ten miles!

"Years of waiting and the "fad" has not passed away. I am still intrigued and feel there is something there I just must "discover" for myself. I have purchased a dime-store water pistol and an assortment of colored ink. With this approach I find an aopportunity to turn a personal shortcoming into an artistic windfall. During six years of military service I never scored better than "poor marksman" with the pistol. The first time I feel frustrated and otherwise in a foul mood I shall consider myself adequately inspired to have a go at it. The result should be sufficiently abstract to take local prize money."

In other words, Mr. Lawrence in the above statement gives us his idea of a few of today's art work that appears to have been painted by a water-pistol!

"The draperies are custom made,
The carpet is perfection.
Each piece of furniture displayed
Is just the right selection,
Straight from the decorator's book,
Complete with that unlived-in look.

.....Betty Isler

Please mark on your calendar, December 11. Miss Isabel Robinson will be presenting her art work in the Fine Arts Building from 2 til 5.

Art Oddity for the Week.....

Three little boys entered the Metropolitan Museum one day, and made for the Egyptian exhibits, where they told an attendant that they had come to see "the dead men." He showed them where the mummies were, and they stood in front of the cases for about 15 minutes just looking. As they were going out one of the innocents approached the attendant and asked, "You kill them and stuff them yourself?"

RECORD RAMBLINGS
By Capres

Most people with stereophonic sets do not know that one of the amazing sensations of the world of sound is theirs for a very reasonable price. Good stereophonic earphones can be bought from twenty-five to thirty dollars. They are best used out of a switching box which costs four to five dollars. The box is wired between the amplifiers and the speakers. The earphones can then be used simultaneously with the speakers; or can be used with the speakers switched off. This is quite a help for long suffering wives and neighbors in the wee hours of the night. Earphones present true binaural sound with one track going to one ear only, and the other track to the other ear. There is nothing quite like it. It sounds as though the orchestra were playing directly in the center of your head. The entire skill seems to reverberate with the sound. It is really something. The earphones have other uses. If you use a tape recorder for outside live recording, the earphones can be brought along for playback and monitoring at the site of the recording. While my wife was in the hospital, I took up the stereo tape recorder and the earphones. She was able to enjoy the best of music with no disturbance to anyone else. As an added attraction you can listen to a football game over the radio while the wife is watching television.

We have run into some good records recently. In the classical veins is Vivaldi's "The Four Seasons" played by the Societa Corelli, RCA-Victor LSC-2424. The Societa is a 13 piece string orchestra which specializes in the music of the time of Vivaldi and Corelli. They play the most known of Vivaldi's worked with grace and precision. This is an appealing presentation of an appealing selection, whether or not the listener enjoys pre Bach music. The recorded sound is great.

My wife sent me out after some Jose Greco. The stereo MGM recording "Noche de Flamenco," S-3802 sounds pretty thin and the record noise is bad. An RCA Victor LM-2300 recording entitled "Presenting Jose Greco" is a recent recording, but there is not a stereo version. Nevertheless it has a scrumptious sound in monaural. It presents generally the better known and melodious classical Spanish music such as "Intermezzo from Goyescas," "Jotas," "Valencia Popular," "Zapateado," and others. There is the guitar, flamenco singing, and Greco's dancying. This is all done with restraint and does not degenerate into a lot of wild shouting and stomping. I heartily recommend it for those interested in the Spanish Dance.

I finally had the chance to hear and buy "Fantastic Percussion," which has been mentioned before as being on most people's list of the ten best recordings of the year. These are quite sophisticated arraingements leaning heavily on the percussion. The conductor is Felix Slatkin, who is well known in the classical field. The company is Liberty, LST-7150. Included are " A String of Pearls," "Blues in the Night," "Opus #1" "Blue Tango," "Caravan," and others. It is in the class of the Command record's "Persuasive Percussion." The music has more body, but Liberty cannot match the fantastic smooth, silent suface of the Command records.

The old Tschaikowsky "1812 Overture" played by Dorati and the Minneapolis Symphony, which was the monaural choice has now been revamped and released in stereo, Mercury 90054. It is still a stirring rendition, but I did not hear it under very good listening conditions; so cannot tell you whether it matches the Martin Gould version on RCA Victor.

KENMORE GAS DRYER

Gas goes to work instantly, with no warm-up wait. Gas is faster by far, reducing drying time to a minimum. Its low heat, high air-flow principle makes short work of even difficult-to-dry shag rugs and bedspreads, yet is ever-so-gentle on even the daintiest synthetics. And as for economy, a Gas Dryer operates for about 1/9th the cost of the other kind. When Gas drying rates first with those who know, wouldn't it be best for your family, too?
